SFNIOR CLASS WILL

I, Patty Adkins, will my tendency to blush and a transcript of our trig class to Mr. Koepnick for use in next year's biology classes.

I, Denise Beason, don't know exactly what to will, nor do I know to whom I could will what I have; what I mean is, what I have I need, and what I don't have I couldn't will anyway, and what I have that I could will no one wants. So therefore then, on the other hand I won't. Don't you agree?

I, Karen Blake, will my driving record to Mr. Beane and my ability to get along with teachers to Mick Frost.

I, Susan Campbell, will my wrestling enthusiasm to Sheila Freeborn, my majorette foot tassels to Pam Paul, my Volkswagen to my little brother Douglas, and much-muchness to Mrs. Mark.

I, Steve Carnahan, will a Mohawk haircut to the wild man, himself, Mr. Butler, some postage stamps and a portable ladder to Mr. Leach, some common courtesy to the Freshmen boys, my wrestling record to next year's wrestling team, a sweatshirt in case of emergency to Mr. Koepnick, my healthy body to Germ Ceaser, my ability to drive in ditches without damaging my dad's truck to Crash Patterson, my sharkness (Woo-oo!) to Mr. Beane, and some flower seeds to be planted in the halls of the school to Mr. Baker.

I, Carol Ceaser, will my curly hair and my bashfulness to Mr. Martin.

For the safety of the fence post, I, Karen Ceaser, will to Mr. Lummertum another year in a Driver's Education School. I also will Nanci Dillman a new prom dress and a date with Canred Heat!

I, Marleen Coe, will all my great home ec. classes to Mrs. Roseland for her memoirs, my super volleyball punch to sixth hour phys. ed. classes, my memorable bus rides to Linda Ceaser and Deb Shively, and all of Linda Coleman's jokes to Jack Knoll.

I, Marilyn Coe, will my great artistic ability to Mick Frost and Jim Needs, the third hour code word to Karen Ceaser, our great 500 games to Jo Schnathorst and Becki Moyer, and another year of "good vibrations" to Merle Stubbs.

I, Linda Coleman, will Beth Muller and Mary Paul all the privileges of the third floor boys' restroom, since they seem to always be there.

I, Linda Crandon, will my volleyball ability to Pam Paul and my phys. ed. clothes to whomever took them.

I, Steve Eibs, will my soggy gym clothes to Kevin Potter, my hair to Merle Stubbs, my good parking habits to Don Kellogg, and my hot car (also known as the Bronze Bullet) to Ron Clay so that he can get some dates.

I, Stan Freeborn, will my defensive pass ability to Joyce Walker and my offensive pass ability to Merle Stubbs.

I, Sandy Fletcher, will to John Lukehart my love of the South and to some junior girl my custom decorated locker--complete with Wallace sticker--and a Halloween party to Bill Herman.

I, Max Hobbs, quite willingly will my senior will which will be exquisite willpower to anyone who will take this, my will, and will use my will with as much will as my will which I have left in my will.

I, Mikalynn Hoeksema, will my driving ability to Betty Paul, and my ability to use my hands when I talk to Mr. Butler.

I, Jeri Locker, will my music demerits to John Lukehart to add to his collection, and my "even" temper to the entire cast and crew of "The Sound of Music".

I, Sydney May, will Craig Thompson a locker with a door on it, and somebody else the locker to the right of me.

I, Willis McGrew, will my height to Bob Tone and my ability to be relieved from attendance to any junior student, along with the EMCO faculty.

I, Melinda Melink, will next year's cheerleaders the fun of filling out 300 papers to get one dance at the school house. I also will Mr. Beane the Sheila Kopsa Karate course to defend himself while chaperoning.

I, Wendy Moore, will my country-western voice to Sheryl Sietmann.

My big mouth I give to Anne Luller to aid in her cheerleading career and also my tiny turned-up nose. My friendly outgoing personality I leave to Beth Luller and all my sex-appeal and charms to Marlene Bennett. My excess blubber I hesitatingly donate to Joyce Walker. Last, but not least, I will my nickname, wency, to Harriet Runner.

I, Thomas Lynn Murphy, do hereby will my plush bachelor pad to Mr. Grosland, and a set of "Facemakers" to Dr. Gourley.

I, Margaret Lorine Nott, will my trouble-making ability to all of Mr. Grosland's students next year, my Betty Crocker award to Mrs. Rose-land, my art ability to Mick Frost, and my knowledge of haunted houses to John Lukehart.

I, Steve Paul, will my sister, Mary, to Bob Elliot, a dust mop to Joe Baker, my gym shorts to whomever has been borrowing them, the SEMCO teachers to the underclassmen, and, to Mr. Stansbury, my "I am Loved" button.

I, Pam Phillips, will a pair of wooden shoes (Dutch, of course) to each member of the SEMCO faculty to wear each day so that the students can hear them coming down the halls and know when to quit talking, laughing, screaming, etc., and start being ambitious, studying students

I, Connie Ridout, will to Nanci Dillman my cheerleading woofs, my name, and our pool table to sleep under with Nancy Beason.

I, Cynthia Marie Runner, will all the misery of the past 180 days to the Juniors, my varicose veins and my ability to play basketball after a slumber party to the girls' basketball team, my broken suitcase to Mr. Dumermuth, my genteelism to Mrs. Mark, the Young-Holtzman Theory to Mr. Koepnick, and above all, the fun and the fun times I have had in the last four years to the underclassmen.

I, Donald Dean Runner, do hereby will the following: my groovy clothing to Rick Elsberry to add to his collection, my build and size to Vic Veren, my timid and shy nature to Bob Ceaser, my wrestling ability to Mr. Parker, my embarrassing moments to Jeff Freeborn, my electric razor with the sideburn trimmer to Mr. Grosland so he may keep his sideburns neat and groovy so he can thrill the billy-goats that Bruce Runner willed him, and a jar of "Butch" wax to Mrs. Fitzgerald.

I, Leroy Runner, will my sports ability and my great personality to Sheryl Wilkens.

I, Jim Shively, will my way with words to any one of the Juniors to use in Mrs. Mark's English class.

I, Dave Sias, will to the Juniors all the seniority privileges I didn't get, and all the knowledge I obtained listening to lectures.

I, Danny Sietmann, will my extra fat to Ed Wilkens and my seemingly harmless body to anyone who needs a powerful structure.

I, Susan Kay Stonewall, will not, but what others will I will.

I, Jon Stubbs, will my height and my ability to play basketball to Jim Weston.

I, Ted Walker, will my black marks on the street to Mr. Padellford and Mr. Gourley. I also will my burnt out glass packs and bald G-70-14's to Mr. Grosland for his fuelly Ford..

I, Mike Ward, will Hick Elsberry my ability to play a guitar so he can join a band and have a reason to wear his hair long and a place to wear the groovy clothes that cutch willed him. I also will Kenny Parmenter a wig, the cooks a new saw blade to cut the cookies, and Stan's and my place on the bench during basketball to Jack Roll and Dick Muckler.

I, John Weaver, will to Mr. Gourley and Mrs. Fitzgerald the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order and a copy of 101 Ways to Operate Vending Machines for Fun and Profit.

I, Steve Wilkens, will my Mafia leadership to Bob Tone, and the book How to Lay Black Marks with a Six Gun by Ray D. to Merle Stubbs.

I, Cal Wiseman, will my modesty to Merle Stubbs and change for a quarter to Don Kellogg. I would also like to will my right football shoe to Mr. Grosland and a piece of elastic to Marlene Bennett.

We, the 1969 Senior Cheerleaders will our organization to Mrs. Fitzgerald and, to Nanci Dillman, a "dry" year!
